September 2015

*Love consists in sharing what one has and what one is with those one loves.
- St. Ignatius of Loyola*

Dear Friend of Jesuit Retreat House,

I send this letter with the hope that your summer has been blessed with many restful and renewing moments in seeing and celebrating God's gifts of family and friends, of life and creation.

As we begin the journey into the more busy time that often follows the summer, it is important to remember what matters most. St. Ignatius reminds us that our response to God's unconditional love for us is reflected in the love we share - what one has and what one is with those one loves.

In a world that clamors for more busyness, more work, more results and more production, we can sometimes lose sight of what matters. What is important is how well we love. Jesus came to show us the way, the truth and the life in how we bring God's love more deeply into each life we touch. If we are faithful to Jesus' way, we may not always see the results or success of our efforts. But the legacy of our love will live on more than we might ever imagine. Helping people on their life journey to build and profess a legacy of love is foundational to our JRH ministry.

We have been blessed with increasing numbers of people who attend our retreats and programs – a spectrum of people from those who have come for many years to the presence at almost every event of people who are first-timers. Throughout my first full year, I have heard countless comments of enthusiasm and appreciation about the beauty and peacefulness of our place, and the relevance and inspiration of Ignatian spirituality in people's lives.

Please consider the retreats and programs we offer to help you “to find God in all things.” Our programs this fall include a new 3-part series on life-changing moments, Pope Francis encyclical on the environment, dealing with the overwhelming busyness of life, a new retreat for young adults, and deeper reflections on Gospel stories and Ignatian spirituality. Invite your family and friends to join you. And know that we welcome your ideas for future retreat offerings.

God be with you,

Richard S. Krivanka, Executive Director

How do these qualities bring us to the Kingdom? Catechists, parents, grandparents, relatives and indeed anyone may find in this retreat an exposure to enjoyable and beautiful stories that open our hearts, make us laugh and remind us of our dependence as we draw closer in love for ourselves, others and God. Ignatian Currents: Kidnapped by Busyness? An Ignatian Remedy
*Cultural "Busyness" and the Ignatian "Two Standards"

Presented by Dr. Laurie Cassidy

Friday, October 30 7:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.

With What Standard Do I Measure My Life

This evening's program will examine what Ignatius intended in this challenging prayer on accepting the standard of Christ amidst our, at times, overwhelming everyday life.

Saturday, October 31 9:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

The Kingdom is Here and Now

We will explore how American culture reduces Christian life into a "spiritual way" in order to be more efficient, accomplished and "busy about many things". Jesus promises the transformation of our minds, therefore how do we allow God to transform our vision of discipleship? With insights from Ignatius we will explore how we trust and surrender to God's Kingdom in our lives and in our world. (See website for more details and registration)

JRH Lay Leadership Programs ... Outreach to Our Parishes!

Our Lay Leadership Program Director, Martha Campbell, reports that there are still a few spaces in our 2015-2016 program year and we are now taking registrations for our 2016-2017 program year. Time to plan ahead! Consider one of our spirituality programs for your parish. Teams of qualified lay leaders are prepared to share our programs based on The Spiritual Exercises of Ignatius Loyola. Here is a brief synopsis of what we can offer on-site at your parish:

The Pilgrim Way of Ignatius Loyola offers a “taste of Ignatian Spirituality,” the spirituality of Pope Francis, which nurtures openness to the call of God in our lives. Some questions addressed in the program include: What happens when you encounter Christ? Is it possible to find God in all things? (4-part series, 90 minute sessions)

Praying with St. Ignatius Retreat-in-Daily-Life follows the pattern set out by The Spiritual Exercises of Ignatius Loyola. Now in its 10th with revisions along the way, this retreat has set hearts on fire with love for Jesus Christ! (8-part series, 2 hour sessions)

The Called and Sent Spiritual Formation Program, grounded in the Spiritual Exercises of Ignatius of Loyola, nurtures spiritual deepening in individuals and communities for service of Christ’s mission in the world. This program is comprised of six modules which can be taken individually or as a series.

Ignatian Foundations introduces key aspects of Ignatian Spirituality (prayer, discernment, action for justice): 6 monthly 2-hour sessions and a day-long retreat.

Encountering Jesus Christ focuses on “interior knowledge of Jesus Christ” which is experienced through Ignatian contemplation of the Gospels: 6 weekly 90 minute sessions and a day-long retreat.

Discernment and Decision-Making applies practical knowledge and application of “discernment of spirits” and decision making according to the teaching of Ignatius Loyola: 6 weekly 2-hour sessions and a day-long retreat.

The Christian at Work in the World is offered in two parts: A) Catholic Social Teaching: and B) Work-Place Spirituality. Each part, which can be taken together or separately, consists of 3 bi-weekly 2-hour sessions and a half-day retreat.

Embracing the Mystery addresses landmarks on the spiritual journey including suffering and death, redemption and grace: 3 monthly 3-hour sessions and an overnight retreat.

Living Prayer Retreat-in-Daily Life centers on life in the Spirit including personal prayer, spiritual direction, liturgy and sacraments: 6 weekly 2-hour sessions.

For further information and to hear more of what people are saying about these programs, please contact a member of our leadership team: Margaret Balewski (margaret.balewski@gmail.com), Martha Campbell (campbellmarthal@gmail.com) Claudette Matero (materoc@aol.com) or Jean Sullivan (jean.r.sullivan@gmail.com).
