June, 2017

Dear Friend of Jesuit Retreat House,

In this beautiful season of spring and new life, we pray that your lives are blessed with hope and possibility. At JRH, we are looking forward with much gratitude to the completion of our new addition and will begin to use the building in the latter part of July. Most importantly, we are realizing the vision and dream since the turn of this century to better serve more people with the gift of our Ignatian spirituality. We will have greatly improved accessibility for all and the capacity to host multiple programs at the same time. We will be doing the needed renovation and updating of our current building through this summer as well as next summer, and further work to enhance our grounds and trails.

I wish to extend our deep gratitude to Martha Campbell, the founding director of our Lay Leadership Program since 2010. After a careful process of discernment, she will resign as of June 30, and sustain a collaborative relationship with JRH. Martha led the development of a foundation of outreach programs that bring Ignatian spirituality to parishes, faith communities and other institutions. These programs are flourishing, receive excellent evaluations and are supported by over 50 lay leaders. More information on these programs is enclosed. Lay Leadership will be led by a new Program Director who will also support overall program development at JRH.

To guide the mission and ministries of JRH in this new era, our Board completed a new strategic plan this past March. We are very hopeful about faithfully serving people who have come to JRH for many years as well as reaching new audiences of different ages with relevant, inspiring and life-giving retreats and programs.

In this issue we also feature highlights from our Hearts on Fire annual awards and fundraising event held on May 12. At this event, we began the public phase of our Capital Campaign: "To Journey, To Build, To Profess" with the announcement of a $400,000 challenge grant from an anonymous donor. All donations to the building campaign between now and December 31 will be matched, dollar for dollar, up to $400,000. To those of you who have pledged or donated to our capital campaign, we offer our deepest thanks. For those who have not yet had the opportunity to participate, prayerfully consider how you can best express your care and support for JRH. We have reached 72% of our $8 million goal, and the final steps are essential for a successful outcome. We would be happy to meet and talk further with you about our campaign. And please pray for all of our JRH efforts in this time!

God be with you,

Richard S. Krivanka,
Executive Director

Since 1898, the grounds of Jesuit Retreat House have provided spiritual peace for people looking to deepen their relationship with God. Now, perhaps more than ever, the sacred space of JRH is a vital gift to Northeast Ohio.

Contemporary men and women make silent retreats for various reasons. Some are searching for a deeper way of knowing God that is personal and real. Others use this time to rest in the creative heart of God, to imagine new possibilities, or to sit with gratitude for God's magnificent work. Whatever your reason for making a retreat, sacred silence is a gift to the soul. Here, you will experience silence on 57 acres of woods and meadows, complete with outdoor shrines and stations of the cross. The retreat house provides a home away from home with three chapels, a library, and home-cooked meals.

As a companion on your journey, your spiritual director will offer guidance based on Ignatian Spirituality.

We invite you to open yourself to the inspiration of a retreat!

IDR cost includes room, board and director's stipend. Daily Mass and Reconciliation available.
To register for your Individually Directed Retreat, contact Jesuit Retreat House by phone at 440-884-9300 or register online at www.jrh-cleveland.org.

our brain works. Participants will have the opportunity to grow intellectually, to pray and reflect on how their faith may be more deeply connected to their day-to-day lives, and to share these experiences with fellow participants. John Ropar has a doctorate in counseling, extensive counseling experience at JCU and in private practice, and has been a certified spiritual director in Ignatian spirituality for eleven years.

Quo Vadis - "Where are you going?"
Presented by David Eich
9:00 am - 3:00 pm Cost: $40

To help answer this question, this program is based on the foundational belief that the encounters one has, coupled with the choices you make, will define the legacy you leave. Participants will reflect on those experiences that made a significant impact on their beliefs, values, and behaviors; recognize the consequences of ethical conflicts we all face in our personal and professional lives; and clarify a legacy roadmap built by the "5 most important things in life." Inspiring stories from an executive on what defines a bad day, a dad on facing adversity, a wife and mother on the meaning of a perfect life, and a volunteer on the gift of forgiveness represent some examples in finding answers to the Quo Vadis question.

Development News

Mary Bondy
Jesuit Retreat House

Greetings! I'm very excited to join Jesuit Retreat House as the new Development Director. I have a strong Jesuit heritage, having been raised in Gesu Parish and residing there most of my life, including raising my own family there now. Yet, my Jesuit roots go even deeper. My Mother was raised in Gesu Parish in Detroit and graduated from Gesu (Jesuit) High School in Miami, Florida, and my Dad was a proud, loyal JCU alum, Class of 1950. Some of my extended family were Jesuits, as well. I strongly believe in the value of Catholic education and I believe in the power of prayer, quiet and meditation in coming to understand our life-long spiritual journey and finding God's love all around us.

I have been happy to see many familiar faces at JRH and to meet so many wonderful people who have been part of the fabric of this community for many years, and even decades. This community is on the "go" throughout Northeast Ohio with our Lay Leadership programs and on the "GROW" at our historic site on State Road, with our new building expansion. Additionally, the organization just completed a new Strategic Plan. All of this makes this a very exciting time to be joining JRH.

We held our annual fundraiser, "Hearts on Fire", on May 12 and honored three very special people in the life and heritage of JRH: Mr. Bill Head, Mrs. Barbara Leggott, and Fr. Tom Schubeck SJ. Proceeds from the Event support the valuable retreats and programs that JRH provides to teens, women and men at all ages and stages in life, year-round. We hope you "enJOYed" a beautiful evening with friends and colleagues and the JRH family. We also announced that thanks to the generosity of donors at HOF last year, we now have a new replacement elevator in service!

Much of my work these first six months has focused on capital campaign and events, and next on our calendar is "TAP into JRH", to be held on Wednesday, July 12, 2017 at Neuvo Modern Mexican & Tequila Bar on the E. Ninth St. pier from 6-9 PM. Mark your calendars and check the JRH website for further details, www.jrh-cleveland.org. It promises to be great fun with great food and merriment, and will include a wine pull and gift card raffle. Tickets must be purchased online, in advance, and space is limited, so HURRY once tickets go on sale in late May.

Lastly, but perhaps most importantly, I have been and will continue to focus on our Capital Campaign, "To Journey, To Build, To Profess." If you believe strongly in the JRH mission and in the importance of our work, please partner with us by making a contribution or calling to learn more about the Campaign and the initiative to secure a vibrant future for the retreat house.

Thank you for all that you do and have done to support and care for JRH. I look forward to meeting and getting to know as many of you as possible, and to helping JRH grow. Please feel free to contact me with questions or suggestions at any time, via email marybondy.jrh@gmail.com or phone 440-884-9300, ext. 322.

More Ways to Support JRH!

We are seeking donations to fund the following items for our new addition and building renovation. Please contact Mary Bondy to make a donation.

- Candleholders: for stone shelves in new prayer room: $49 each, or set of ten: $490
- Peg rack for stoles: $100
- Reference books for rituals for the prayer room: $431
- Holy water bucket: $350
- Sprinkler: $150
- Whisk boom sprinkler: $25
- Further opportunities for art work being planned throughout the new addition

A Word of Thanks ...

It's been my joy to serve as the Director of Lay Leadership Programs at JRH for the past seven years. Thanks to those who envisioned a lay spiritual formation program based in the Spiritual Exercises and who trusted that I was the one to lay the foundation. Thanks to each of the lay leaders who stepped forward to share their gifts and skills in making this dream a reality! Thanks to the many pastors and leaders who have welcomed our retreats and programs to your parishes and communities and to those who answered the "call" to participate. Most especially, thanks to God who has inspired it all! As I leave this position I am grateful that a firm foundation has been laid and that many lay leaders are poised to carry on. I will continue to offer retreats and programs at JRH and am blessed to share in its mission!

Hearts on Fire 2017

Fr. Brian Paulson SJ, Provincial of the Midwest Jesuits, Ignatian Spirituality Honorees: Bill Head, Barbara Leggott, Fr. Thomas Schubeck SJ, and Rick Krivanka, Executive Director

Hearts on Fire Co-Chairs:
Karl & Carol Ertle and Peggy & Tom Finucane

Over 370 guests enjoyed cocktails, outstanding hospitality, and an elegant dinner under a spectacular party tent at JRH on Friday, May 12. Friends of JRH gathered to honor three recipients of the Ignatian Spirituality Award: Mr. Bill Head, former JRH Board Chair, Mrs. Barbara Leggott, Associate Director of JRH, and Fr. Tom Schubeck, SJ, Professor Emeritus at John Carroll University. Inspiring reflections, fun, prizes and great conversation graced the evening, with all proceeds benefiting Jesuit Retreat House and those we serve. The evening generates great support for our general operating funds. We also began the public phase of our Capital Campaign: “To Journey, To Build, To Profess” by announcing a $400,000 challenge grant from an anonymous donor. All donations to the building campaign between now and December 31, 2017 will be matched, dollar for dollar, up to $400,000.

In Loving Memory

Each month we remember our benefactors with Mass. In a special way we remember our friends who have gone home to the Lord. We remember and pray for Dolores Aube, Linda Bencie, Sheila Carlin, Marilyn Cunin, Richard Esson, Richard Feldtz, Becky Hennessy, Anthony Skoch and Stephen Steve.

Please let us know when you lose a loved one, and we will add them to our Mass intentions.

JRH is looking for volunteers!
